Sunday’s Gospel Reading is taken from Mark 13:24-32

The stars will fall from heaven and the powers in the heavens will be shaken

Jesus said to his disciples: ‘In those days, after the time of distress, the sun will be darkened, the moon will lose its brightness, the stars will come falling from heaven and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory; then too he will send the angels to gather his chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the world to the ends of heaven.

‘Take the fig tree as a parable: as soon as its twigs grow supple and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. So with you when you see these things happening: know that he is near, at the very gates. I tell you solemnly, before this generation has passed away all these things will have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

‘But as for that day or hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son; no one but the Father.’

St. Teresa's Wilmslow Notices

Encyclical letter from the Holy Father on the Sacred Heart of Jesus – on 24th October 2024, we received with joy the fourth Encyclical Letter of Pope Francis's pontificate Dilexit Nos – “He has loved us” on the human and divine love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The Holy Father describes his letter as bringing together precious reflections of previous magisterial texts and a long history that goes back to the Sacred Scriptures to re-propose to the whole Church, devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Pope Francis has written this Encyclical Letter amid the 350th anniversary celebrations of the apparitions to Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque. The letter can easily be accessed on the internet.

Aid to the Church in Need – Thank you – Rachel, the lady who gave the talk on the work of ACN a few weeks ago, is most grateful for the contributions and sales she received after the Masses over that weekend. She made a total of £386.45 and thanks you for your much appreciated generosity.

• Bishops' Statement on Assisted Suicide Vote on 29th November & How to contact your MP

This is an exceptional moment which has led the bishops of all our countries to issue a statement titled “Be Compassionate” in opposition to this parliamentary Bill and to urge for the sick and aged compassion and a greater provision of palliative care. We know that assisted suicide laws in other jurisdictions have had devastating consequences for the poor, disabled and marginalised. This is the biggest threat to the vulnerable in a decade. Copies of the statement are available in our churches this weekend. Please take one.

The statement also asks the faithful to be in contact with their Members of Parliament as the decisive parliamentary debate takes place in just two weeks' time. Postcards from Not Dead Yet UK, who are a network of people with disabilities who oppose assisted suicide, are also available in our churches this weekend. Parishioners can use these to easily contact their MP to encourage them to vote against assisted suicide.

• Parish Event - Better off dead?

All are welcome to the hall at Sacred Heart and St Teresa's on Tuesday 19th November at 7.15pm to watch a BBC documentary called ‘Better off dead?’ authored by actor & disability rights campaigner Liz Carr (running time 58 minutes).
